MASTERS

FINLAND SEASON THREE

Rally Finland, still widely known as the legendary "1000 Lakes Rally," stands in 1994 as the ultimate high-speed test of courage and precision in the World Rally Championship.

Based around Jyväskylä, the rally charges through the fast, flowing gravel roads of central Finland, where endless crests, huge jumps, and sweeping corners demand absolute commitment.

The smooth gravel surface allows for extraordinary speed, but the real challenge lies in maintaining perfect rhythm over blind brows taken flat-out, often with nothing but pace notes and instinct to rely on.

The nickname "1000 Lakes" reflects not just the landscape, but the relentless undulation of the terrain - every rise and dip threatening to unsettle the car if not approached with total confidence.

Between 1987 and 1993, the rally has been dominated by drivers who can blend bravery with precision, many of them thriving on home soil.

As the 1994 season unfolds, Rally Finland remains the purest expression of flat-out rallying - where flow is everything, and the margin for error is almost nonexistent.

Rally Finland Winners (1987-1993):

1987 - Markku Alén (Lancia Delta HF 4WD)

1988 - Markku Alén (Lancia Delta Integrale)

1989 - Mikael Ericsson (Mitsubishi Galant VR-4)

1990 - Carlos Sainz (Toyota Celica GT-Four ST165)

1991 - Juha Kankkunen (Lancia Delta Integrale 16V)

1992 - Didier Auriol (Lancia Delta HF Integrale)

1993 - Juha Kankkunen (Toyota Celica Turbo 4WD)
